Instructional Design and Distance Learning provides faculty support with the design and development of online, hybrid, and web-enhanced courses and modules along with the use of technology in and out of the classroom. Workshops offered support best practices within education to improve the quality of the educational experiences for students and faculty at Buffalo State.

Additional assistance with Blackboard Learn and Collaborate Ultra is available through the SUNY Online Support Services Help Desk, 1-844-673-6786 (1-844-OPENSUNY), or by submitting an online request through the Open SUNY website (<https://online.suny.edu/help/>).
